SCHMITZ GUILTY OF CRIME OF EXTORTION

Verdict of Jury Reached on the First Formal Ballot Cast.

THE JURY WAS OUT AN HOUR

Attorney for the Mayor Will Immediately Apply for a New Trial Before the Court—Maximum Penalty is Five Years.

San Francisco, Cal., June 15.—A jury of twelve of his people has declared Mayor Eugene H. Schmitz guilty of the crime of extortion as charged against him by the Oliver grand jury.

The jury was out just one hour and thirty-five minutes. It elected Charles E. Capp foreman, and at once proceeded to an informal ballot. This was cast verbally, and stood 11 for conviction and 1 for acquittal, Juror Burns, a shoemaker, casting the dissenting vote.

Then the twelve men began a discussion of the evidence, which lasted for nearly an hour. At the end of that time the first formal ballot was cast. It was a written ballot, and was unanimous for conviction.

Schmitz's attorneys will ask for the legal period stay of proceedings before sentence is pronounced against the convicted official.

The maximum penalty for the crime of extortion is five years' imprisonment in the state prison.

The attorneys for the mayor will immediately apply for a new trial before the court, and will also ask for a writ of probable cause. If the application of the attorneys is refused, Schmitz will apply to the district court of appeals for a new trial.

WILLIAMS CONFESSES CRIME.

Mrs. Gibbons, of Columbia, S. C., Was Robbed of $61,000.

San Antonio, June 15.—Charged with assaulting and robbing Mrs. Sallie Gibbons, of Columbia, S. C., of $61,000, Rufus William, Thursday night, confessed to the crime in the county jail.

He was caught Thursday on an eastbound Southern Pacific train on his way to New Orleans. Mrs. Gibbons and Williams arrived in the city Thursday morning from the east, the former coming for the purpose of purchasing Texas lands. She had on her person $51,000 in bills and the balance in gold coin. At noon Williams obtain a local livery and suggested a drive in the woods. Mrs. Williams was struck on the head and an attempt was made to drown her. Williams stated he took her money and fled back to this city.

May Pardon Spanish Editor.

Madrid, June 15.—It is believed in official circles that Joseph Nakes, editor of the El Matin, Mata and Iparra, who has been sentenced to nine years' imprisonment for complicity in a plot to kill Alfonso and Queen Victoria on their wedding day, May 31, 1906, will be pardoned.

WIDESPREAD ACTIVITY IN SOUTH

An Expenditure of Nearly $28,000,000 in Various Enterprises.

Baltimore, June 15.—The Manufacturers' Record in this week's issue presents a number of very striking facts indicative of the widespread activity in southern business affairs.

Chief among the events of the week in the south is the closing of a contract involving about $12,000,000 for building a 400-mile railroad from Chattanooga to Savannah, with branches probably to Augusta and Atlanta. This is the most important single railroad undertaking reported in the central south for a good many months.

Showing the tendency of iron and steel people of other sections to invest in southern iron properties is the purchase by a strong Pennsylvania concern of three furnaces and large ore properties in Virginia.

As indicative of southern business activity, as are the closing of this railroad contract and the purchase of this iron property, is the announcement of the letting of the contract in New Orleans for the building of a hotel to cost $2,500,000. It will be sixteen stories high, of fire-proof construction, 162x320 feet, and will have 1,000 rooms. The progress of that city is strikingly shown, not only in this great hotel undertaking, but in the fact that the same week witnesses the closing of a contract for a new depot and terminal station to cost $500,000, and for the building of another hotel eleven stories high, to cost $500,000.

Another significant fact is the expenditure of $10,000,000 during the past year upon improvements by railroads centering in Atlanta, including the construction of two new roads, double tracking, the building of terminals, grade revisions, etc. At Rome, Ga., nearly $1,000,000 has been spent upon new buildings and improvements of which $600,000 went into establishmets for enlarging manufacturing plants, while there are now being erected or planned structures to cost in the aggregate $300,000. At Augusta, Ga., a fertilizer company established last winter, will double the capacity of its plant to 30,000 tons per season, and permits issued during the past month at such points as Louisville, Ky., Memphis and Nashville, Tenn., Washington, D. C., and Baltimore, Md., show a steady advance in building operations all along the line.

GUNBOAT GOES TO SALVADOR

Yorktown Will Guard American Interests in Disturbed Country.

Washington, June 15.—It is believed that the gunboat Yorktown, which sailed Thursday from LaUnion for Acajutla, the Salvadoran town on the Pacific coast, which was the late scene of capture by what are reported to be Nicaraguan and Salvadoran revolutionists, has already arrived at her destination. She will watch over American interests particularly, and incidentally give protection to any foreigners; but she is not expected to interefere in any way with the internal politics of the country, or to take any part in favor of either belligerent. Another ship is likely to be sent to reinforce the Yorktown.

Senor Mejia, the Salvadoran minister, had a talk with Secretary Root of the revolutionary movements of the last few days, but had no later news than that conveyed in the message he had received Thursday from President Figueria.

One Benefit of Cold Weather.

Gadsden, Ala., June 15.—Farmers in the city are authority for the statement that the cold weather of Sunday, June 2, has killed the 17-year-old locusts, which had commenced to make their appearance in large numbers throughout this section. The noise of the insects was a monotonous roar up to the time mentioned, but they have not been heard since.

Negro Was Found Guilty.

Union, S. C., June 15.—The jury in the case of Lucy Lipsey, a negress, who, some months ago, created a sensation by entering the office of Dr. Will L. Linder and shooting him while his back was turned, has been found guilty of assault with intent to kill. Sentence was deferred. The defense was temporary insanity.

ORCHARD PLEAD FOR FELLOW MURDERER

Has Brought Sensational Evidence to a Close.

PRISONER IS IN GOOD SPIRITS

Captain McParland, Famous Detective Who Has Figured in Case, Believes Orchard Has Told the Truth in His Confession.

Boise, Idaho, June 15.—Additional evidence bearing on the story as told by Harry Orchard of his attempts to kill Fred Bradley, of San Francisco, was introduced by the state Friday.

Laurence Guiddoni, the proprietor of the store near the Bradley home, was the first witness. It was here that Orchard says he made his rendezvous while he was watching the Bradley house. Orchard, or Barry as he called himself while he frequented the Guiddoni store, made himself very popular with the family. It was the proprietor who went out and secured the room opposite the Bradley house from which Orchard said he could look into Bradley's dining room and gain the exact knowledge that enabled him to plant the bomb at the right time.

In the course of his cross-examination, Orchard said he had received a registered letter containing $100 from Pettibone.

It is believed that Steve Adams will be located in Ogden by the authorities, but the San Francisco matter is temporarily passed, and the evidence will not be of great importance for the rest of the week.

It was at first the intention of the state to put Steve Adams on the stand immediately after Orchard. This however, has been abandoned and no decision has yet been reached as to when the man accused of participation in many of the greater crimes to which Orchard has confessed will take the stand.

Orchard, who reached the climax of his testimony Thursday, and whose sensational story came to an end in a dramatic manner, counsel for the defense leaving him pleading for the life of his fellow murderer, returned to the penitentiary after he left the court room. Warden Whitney said his prisoner appeared to be in better spirits than he had been for many months. He shows not the slightest evidence of fatigue or nervousness, and he ate a hearty meal after he reached the penitentiary.

Captain James McParland, the famous detective, who has figured so largely in the testimony, and who has been attacked by counsel for the defense, prefers not to be interviewed at length on the subject of the Orchard confession.

"It would be superfluous for me to reiterate," he said. "Orchard has told the literal truth about the confession, and the way it was given to me. I made him no promises; I never made a promise to a criminal in my life. Orchard first confessed to me, but said he was not quite ready to give it to me finally.

"I promised to hold it for some time and I did so. He told me that when he was ready to tell the whole story, he would let me know, and some time later he again told me the incidents of his life, leaving out nothing. Every word that he has said on the stand as to the confession is the truth, and there is nothing to add."

The state expects to close its case in ten days, or two weeks.

Clarence Darrow, for the defense, says their case will take about four weeks, though it is possible it may be concluded in less. It is generally conceded, however, that the verdict will not be reached before August 1.

Farm Lands Submerged.

Evansville, Ind., June 15.—The river here Friday morning began rising rapidly and a stage of 20 feet or more is expected. Many thousand acres of farm lands are submerged. Farmers between here and Cairo, Ill., will be severe losers, their corn crop practically destroyed wherever planted in lowlands.

LONGSHOREMEN'S STRIKE OFF.

More Than 12,000 Returned to Work Friday—Pathetic Scene.

New York, June 15.—There was a pathetic scene at the meeting of the longshoremen, whose strike for increased pay was declared off Thursday.

Patrick Connors, leader of the strikers, a big man who had fought determinedly for the men, broke down and wept when compelled to make the acknowledgment that the men were beaten. There was a moment's silence and the hall rang with cheers for the leader, while many of the men who had faced privation in an effort to win their demands, hurried to the platform, shook Connors by the hand and assured him that he had made a good fight, and did the best he could.

More than 12,000 of the original 20,000 strikers, who remained firm, returned to work Friday for the same pay they received when they went on strike—30 cents an hour.

The strike has lasted nearly six weeks, and was a great financial loss to the steamship companies and to the workers. The loss in wages to the longshoremen has been close to a million dollars.

JOHNSON PAYS DEATH PENALTY

Assailant of Mrs. Georgia Hembree Executed in Atlanta Jail.

Atlanta, June 15.—Will Johnson, the assailant of Mrs. Georgia Hembree, paid the death penalty on the gallows Friday.

The negro was hanged in the execution room of the county Tower—a death chamber where many other unfortunates have met their fate.

While preparations were being made the condemned man, occupying a cell in murderer's row, wept and prayed at intervals.

When news of the prison commission's declination to commute Johnson's sentence to life imprisonment reached the jail Thursday a death watch was placed upon Johnson, and his vigil never ceased. His every move was followed, whether he knelt and prayed, or paced his cell nervously or threw himself on his iron bunk, burying his head in his hands and moaning.

Johnson was convicted of criminal assault upon Mrs. Georgia Hembree, wife of Richard Hembree, a truck farmer living on the Adamsville road, near Battle Hill. The crime was committed on August 15 of last year.

THREE BURNED TO DEATH.

Fatal Fire Occurs in Shaker Settlement Near Harrison, O.

Cincinnati, O., June 15—Three are dead and two seriously injured as the result of the burning of the four principal buildings of the Shaker settlement at Whitewater village, near Harrison, O., early Friday.

Fire was discovered in the main building, probably originating from a defective flue. The flames spread with great rapidity, and the means for fighting fire being inadequate, there was no hope from the start of saving the structures. Mrs. Kuele Bear, Katherine Sterr and Mary Middletown, three aged women who occupied quarters in the main building, were burned to death before any one could arouse them. Charles Sterr and Row Barr, in making their escape from the burning buildings, were seriously injured. Sterr was injured in an endeavor to reach the safe in the office of the main building, but being cut off by flames and smoke, he was compelled to jump from a window to save himself.

Morgan Buys Costly Marbles.

New York, June 15.—A dispatch from Paris reports that J. Pierpont Morgan has purchased the splendid collection of fifteenth century marbles and bronzes belonging to the princely house of Strozzi, of Florence. The price named is $200,000.

7,000 Men to Resume Work.

San Francisco, June 15.—Seven thousand men will go to work in the various iron trades industries as a result of the ratification by the machinists Thursday of the agreement between employers and employees.

NEW ORLEANS BEGINS AN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

VIGILANCE COMMITTEE FORMED

Kidnaping of Louisiana Boy Stirs City to Take Active Measures to Cleanse Place of a Dangerous Class of Criminals.

New Orleans, June 15.—Then Italians were under arrest Friday as suspects in the kidnaping of Walter Lamana. The search has assumed the proportion of a campaign to rid the city of long continued evils springing from its Italian colony. Under the leadership of a vigilance committee of twenty-five Italians and with the moral support of New Orleans business men represented by such bodies as the Cotton Exchange, Progressive Union and Board of Trade, hundreds of Italians have thrown off the fear of talking which has heretofore handicapped the police, and are giving information, which, whether the lost boy is found or not, will help cleanse the city of a dangerous criminal class.

The search for Walter Lamana is now following the direction of the Mississippi river northward. The letters demanding $6,000 ransom which the boy's father received and clews obtained by the police make it appear that little Walter was carried for several days in a covered wagon which followed the river's course.

According to the directions of one of those letters the father was to drive along the same route, alone and dressed in a particular fashion, until he heard a passerby say "drop the red handkerchief." This was to be the signal to drop the money into the roadway.

Lamana drove out this road, but was accompanied by two policemen in uniform and no signal was given.

The suspected wagon has been traced from Saturday night last, when the boy disappeared, until early in this week, when it crossed the river many miles above the city.

Iron Orders Taken Far Ahead.

Birmingham, Ala., June 15.—Announcement was made Thursday that furnace companies in this district have begun taking orders for iron to be delivered during the second quarter of 1908, the basis of prices being $18.50 per ton for No. 2 foundry iron. Heavy sales have already been made for delivery during the first quarter of next year. No spot iron is to be had, so active is the demand, while sales of the remainder of this year are being made only to regulate customers. Iron for delivery during the fourth quarter of this year is quoted at $21.50 for No. 2 foundry.

Lady Dies at Dinner Party.

Chattanooga, Tenn., June 15.—A telephone message to the Times, from Sewanee, Tenn., says that Mrs. Telfair Hodgson, the philanthropist, aged 60, dropped dead while entertaining a large party of ladies at dinner. After the function the entire party had taken seats upon the front gallery and were chatting in groups when suddenly Mrs. Hodgson's head fell upon her breast and she became unconscious. Fifteen minutes later she was dead. An acute attack of heart trouble was the cause of death.

Crop Thirty Days Late.

Houston, Tex., June 15.—D. J. Neill, state lecturer for the Farmers' union, after a tour of the north, west and east Texas, said that the cotton crop is in worse condition now than has ever previously been known at this time of year. Mr. Neill states the crop is at least thirty days late.

Kaiser Approves Scheme.

Berlin, June 15.—The kaiser has approved the great scheme for the construction of a stadium in the Grunewald forest on the outskirts of Berlin. It is to be provided for the purpose and, as it is projected, will be a model of the Greek stadium.

SUMMER NORMAL TO OPEN MONDAY

Indications Are That Large Number of Students Will Be Here.

A MOST EXCELLENT FACULTY

The Normal This Year Promises to be One of the Most Successful Ever Held in the State—Term Will be Opened Monday Morning.

In compliance with instructions from State Superintendent of Public Instruction Holloway, the State summer normal will open in this city Monday morning, June 17, at 9:30 o'clock. Already a large number of students from every section of the State have arrived, and the indications are that there will be from 200 to 250 students for the term.

While the system of summer normals has been in vogue in this State for many years, this promises to be the most successful ever held, as under the new educational law, when all matters educational have been brought down to a fine point, the benefit is bound to be much greater.

A faculty of the leading educators of the State has been selected for this normal, and is as follows:

W. F. Yocum, Dean of the University of the State of Florida, principal, psychology, pedagogy.

W. E. Knibloe, principal of the Duval High School, botany, zoology, physics.

Geo. M. Lynch, principal of the Jasper Normal Institute, arithmetic I, algebra, geometry, trigonometry.

Tom F. McBeath, principal of the Gainesville Graded and High School, rhetoric, English literature, English grammar I, composition.

J. H. Workman, principal of the Ocala High School, general history, physical geography, arithmetic II, orthography.

W. H. Russell, principal of the Starke High School, Latin, physiology, civil government.

P. W. Corr, Summerlin Institute, U. S. history, Florida history, political geography, English grammar II.

Mrs. Ella LaF. Hamilton, principal of the Primary Department of the Starke High School, primary methods, reading.

Dr. W. F. Yocum, dean of the University of Florida, and one of the most widely known educators of the South, as is noted, will be the principal of the normal. Others who have been assigned to various positions are equally prominent in the line of education, and altogether the term promises to prove one of the most beneficial ever held in the State.

The opening exercises of the normal, which will be held in the building of the Gainesville Graded and High School, will begin at 9:30 Monday morning. There will probably be an address of welcome by Mayor Thomas, welcoming the students to the city, which will be followed by addresses by County Superintendent Dr. J. L. Kelley, Hon. W. W. Hampton of the board of trustees of the Ganesville sub-school district, and others.

Dr. Yocum, who s enthusiastic over the success of this normal, declares that he is going to exercise every effort to make it the best summer normal ever held in the State. He is an excellent instructor, has selected an excellent faculty, and there is no reason why this should not be the case, as every instructor is an enthusiastic and an efficient educator.

The students are being assigned to various homes of the city who have agreed to take them as boarders during the term, which will close August 9th.

At the close of the term State Superintendent Holloway will direct an examination under the auspices of the State educational department, which will be for State and primary certificates.

PURSUED BY PLUTOCRATS, COL. TAPP GETS PERMISSION TO CARRY A GUN

HE FORMERLY RESIDED HERE

Was for Several Years Engaged in the Practice of Law in Gainesville, and is Well Known Throughout This Section of the State.

Judging from The Atlanta Journal of the 14th inst., Hon. Sidney C. Tapp, for many years a lawyer of this city but now of Atlanta, where he is editor of The American Republic, is pursued by a lot of plutocrats who have written him all sorts of threatening letters, and as a result Col. Tapp has secured permission from the authorities to become a walking arsenal, so to speak.

Col. Tapp, as he was known here, is so well known in Gainesville and throughout this section of the State, that The Sun reproduces the story, which makes interesting reading, and is as follows:

The Story.

A conspiracy more subtle than Trustlow's, more gigantic than the plots of Harry Orchard's bloody gang, is alleged to have been launched by a group of money kings and corrupt United States Senators against the life of Atlanta's Cromwell, the Honorable Sidney C. Tapp.

So says Mr. Tapp himself.

And so convinced is he by the many suspicious things that have been happening here of late— anonymous letters, threatening messages, secret telephone calls—that he has secured a permit from High Sheriff John W. Neims to carry a pistol.

"Though I still stand undaunted," said the famous editor Thursday morning, "I have taken precautions. I shall continue to write my editorials. I shall denounce the scoundrels, millionaires and Senators though they be. Of course, I shall be ready for their hired assassins and shall be more careful how I go about at night."

It is these editorials to which Mr. Tapp referred that have leagued half the United States Senate against him, as he believes. Since last January they have been appearing in Mr. Tapp's monthly, known as "The American Republic," a publication which has not been paralleled for battleax sarcasm since Timon of Athens railed by the seaside, or the iconoclastic Brann heard the call of "30." Aldrich, Platt, Depew, Elkin, Knox, Spooner, Stone and Bailey all have been described by Mr. Tapp as more fit for stripes than Senate seats.

A Diabolical Plot.

"I have heralded them," he says, "from one end of the country to the other. And now, it appears, they are unable to survive my warfare and are planning to put me out of the way."

For some time, thinks Mr. Tapp, circumstances have been pointing in that direction.

Last Tuesday morning came a climax in the drama of "Tapp Against Tyrants." It was in the office of The Evans' Printing Company, 130½ Decatur street, where the editor dictates his Philippics and where The American Republic is brought forth once a month. Mr. Tapp's six and a half feet of patriotism reposed in an arm chair and nearby sat Jack Evans, his private secretary, taking down the immortal utterances which on the 20th of this month will startle the world. Only the night before Mr. Tapp had been sought out in his room at the Aragon Hotel by two strange men giving their names as J. W. and W. J. Stone. As he was dictating the 'phone rang.

"Lay On, McDuff," Cried Tapp.

Mr. Tapp answered and a husky voice called from the other end of the wire:

"We are coming down to see you about those articles you have been writing."

In a firm voice Mr. Tapp replied:

"Come on. I am ready for you."

Then he told the men in the shop and there was a call to arms. Jack Evans seized a huge sledge hammer and gripping it in his left hand continued writing. Mr. Tapp composedly opened his pocket knife, whetted it once or twice on his shoe sole and laid it by his manuscript. The printers scampered over the building and as they eyed the doorway skittishly snatched up such weapons as lay at hand—broomsticks, pokers, bars of lead, paper weights, lumps of coal and the like. Thus arsenelled, they all awaited the attack among them like Wellington at Waterloo.

The minutes hiked by. Quarter of an hour passed without a shadow of the enemy. One printer took the opportunity to drive a nail through the end of his broomstick, and Mr. Tapp ran his forefinger tranquilly across the open blade of his pocket knife. The enemies of The Republic, the henchmen of corporate power and political corruptionists, were, for all that little band of patriots knew, hastening toward them two strong, but undismayed they stood, sledge hammers and pocket knives unsheathed.

Said Mr. Tapp Thursday morning, in speaking of those moments of suspense:

"If they had come, we'd have given them the warmest reception they ever heard of."

Tapp's Touching Tale.

These two strange men are the only hirelings of the conspiracy that have so far dared to proclaim their presence in the city. One of them, says Mr. Tapp, has been described to him as a tall, "wild-eyed fellow with iron gray hair," for all the world like Raymund Trustlows. The other is said to be of a short, doughty build, very red in the face, evidently a hard drinker. Mr. Tapp first heard of them last Tuesday night about 11 o'clock. This is how he tells the story:

"I had gone to bed and was trying to get to sleep when I heard a knock at my door. When I asked who was there a voice that sounded as if the speaker's mouth was full of mush, and as if he was trying to disguise his tone, answered, 'It's the porter. Two gentlemen downstairs say they want to see you.' I told him to tell the two gentlemen that if they wanted to see me to send up their cards. I was having a hard time of it, you see, with my insomnia, and I wanted to go to sleep."

His Intuition Was Right.

Here Mr. Tapp digressed for a moment to explain that his insomnia is due to a rush of blood to the brain, a phenomena well known among hard thinkers. In fact, psychology records it that poets and philosophers frequently die from this very trouble.

"Well," continued Mr. Tapp, "I suspected something, and my door wasn't locked, either. But the men didn't come that night. Next morning I was handed their names by the clerk. They were J. W. Bailey of Texas and W. J. Stone of Missouri. Of course, they really were not Stone and Bailey. They were evidently mere tools of others."

"Will you continue in the face of such dangers to denounce the octopi?" was asked Mr. Tapp.

Threatens the Conspirators.

"Continue?" he shot back, with a lionlike toss of his clustering thatch. "Continue? Just wait till the next issue of 'The Republic.' I'm going after them hotter than ever. I fear them not. I'm prepared. Let them give me half a chance, and I'll put a bullet hole through them."

The startling incidents just mentioned are but two little powder heaps, so to speak, in the long fuse of conspiracy that has been laid against the Atlanta patriot, and which, he suspects, may suddenly burst like an infernal machine. Letter after letter, he says, has come into Georgia from the exposed politicians of the Senate inquiring how he may be checked in his warfare against them.

"They always refer to The American Republic as that 'thing,'" said Mr. Tapp with a sly, quiet chuckle. "But still the 'thing' is doing its work. It has caused Spooner to resign, it has almost ousted Bailey, it has exposed Stone and his infamous baking powder chicanery, it has shown up Depew and, as I shall declare in my next editorial, it will either drive them from the Senate or put them in the penitentiary."

In addition to the anonymous letters which pursue Mr. Tapp like a swarm of river gnats, he has had frequent 'phone calls warning him against a continuance of his policy. By these latter, however, he lays little store.

"They are merely local," he says, "not national in scope as the letters are."

Since Wednesday morning the conspiracy has not shown its head, though Mr. Tapp and his friends still think that it is lurking nearby. For that reason he has secured permission to go armed and has decided to to be a little wary in going out at night. How many millions are behind the plot, no one can say, though the fact that Senator Aldrich, one of the group most bitterly arraigned by the editor, is a father-in-law of Rockefeller's son is highly suggestive in that particular.

ACCIDENT ON A. C. L.

Citra Local Had Head-On Collision With Palatka Freight.

There was a head-on collision of the Citra local and a freight train from Palatka on the Atlantic Coast Line railroad at Micanopy Junction Saturday morning, owing to a misunderstanding of orders.

There was no loss of life, but Trainmaster Pooser, who sustained a sprained ankle, was on the freight.

Trainmaster Pooser was brought to his home in this city, and is now under treatment of his physician. Friends will be glad to learn that his injuries are not serious, and that he will be out again in a few days.

The Citra train arrived about an hour late, but it was necesasry to send a wrecking train to Micanopy Junction to clear the wreck.

To Our Friends and Patrons.

The closing of our banking department is now fixed for the 5th of July. This will be immediately succeeded by The Dutton Bank, a State institution organized by and to be conducted and managed by some of the most reliable and conservative men of the city and vicinity.

All deposits in the bank of H. F. Dutton & Co. will be transferred to the new bank, unless otherwise directed by the depositors, and business will continue without change or interruption of any kind. The new bank will forward receipts and all necessary papers to the depositors.

Parties holding time certificates of deposit can have them redeemed at once, with interest, or can hold them until their maturity, to suit the wishes or convenience of the holder. The new bank will issue certificates with like conditions if parties so desire.

We bespeak for our successors the same liberal patronage that we have received. They are men so well known in this vicinity that they will have already secured the confidence of others as they have of ourselves. They ask for your patronage, and will return in favors as liberal as a conservative method of doing business will permit. If our old depositors, who have been with us so many years, will extend to them the same confidence, favors and patronage that they have so liberally given us, they will add to the many obligations under which they have already placed us.

H. F. Dutton & Co. will handle cotton (bales of cotton) as usual at the old stand. Very sincerely,

H. F. DUTTON & CO.

It was given at Poe Springs, and an abundance of fish served in different styles added greatly to the usual picnic viands. A string band was engaged for the day, and the dancing in the pavilion overlooking the river was greatly enjoyed. The committee in charge of the picnic, appointed by the chancellor commander, J. C. Le Counte, was as follows: J. H. Salls, Jas. Day, A. E. Adams, W. N. Davidson.

On the way to the picnic, the horse driven by Mrs. W. B. Anderson, Mrs. E. K. Anderson and Mrs. P. P. Wood, became unmanageable, and but for the bravery and presence of mind of Mrs. W. B. Anderson, a serious accident might have occurred. She seized the frightened animal by the bridle and was dragged over the ground some distance before she succeeded in controlling him. She was in imminent danger but received no injury except to blister her hands.

MELROSE HAPPENINGS.

MANSFIELD—ZETROUER.

Marriage of Two Popular Young People at Rochelle.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Zetrouer, Wednesday morning, was the scene of a most beautiful wedding, the contracting parties being Mr. L. Elmo Mansfield and Miss Lula Zetrouer. The attendants were Mr. E. Waits and Miss Susie Mansfield, N. W. Colman and Miss Ruby Griffin.

The bride and groom marched to the altar, stopping directly under the floral bell. Rev. J. H. Mathewson, in beautiful words and eloquent language, pronounced them husband and wife.

The decorations were beautiful, the entire room being almost a bower of roses, ferns, palms, trailing vines and sweet magnolias. Two large initials, "M—Z.", forming the initials of the contracting parties, hung from the decorations back of the floral bell.

The bride was attired in a gown of silk crepe de chine over white satin trimmed with Irish point lace, while the groom wore a handsome suit of conventional black. The attendants were all richly costumed and presented a most attractive appearance to the already pretty scene.

After the ceremony an excelelnt dinner was served in superabundance. At 1:30 they drove to the depot and boarded the train for Pelham, Georgia, the home of the groom, from which place they will proceed to Jamestown and other points to spend their honeymoon. The bridal presents were numerous, thus testifying largely the love and esteem of their many friends.

The groom is one of the most widely known and most popular young men of Jacksonville. He holds a very responsible position, being dispatcher at the S. A. L. at that point, and is quite popular.

The bride is one of our fairest and most beautiful young ladies and a favorite for her affectionate and sweet disposition.

They will make Jacksonville their future home. A GUEST.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff, or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

A New Firm.

Dr. J. H. Alderman, for many years a dentist of more than passing note, who is known not only in Gainesville but in several other sections, has taken into partnership Dr. Harry L. Pearce, recently graduated from the Atlanta Dental College, one of the leading institutions of the kind in the United States.

Dr. Alderman is so well known in this city and section that it is unnecessary to make references to him, except to say that for several years he has enjoyed the most lucrative practice in this section of the State. Dr. Pearce is a young man well known here, having been born and reared in Gainesville. His graduating papers were of the very highest order, which is the best recommendation which could be given him.

The business will be continued at the same stand occupied by Dr. Alderman, over the Dutton bank, and it is needless to add that the new firm will enjoy a fine success.

A WONDERFUL WILL.

We append hereto the will of a man who died in an insane asylum in Illinois.

His name was Charles Loundsburg and the English language does not furnish a document more exquisite, tender and pathetic.

One cannot read this document without feeling better for having done so and without rejoicing that there are other things besides stocks and bonds, and silver and gold, and precious stones, with which to make the world beautiful and life a pleasure and a delight.

What can surpass God's adornments, the splendors of the heavenly bodies, the beauty of the forests, the grandeur of the mountains, the music of the birds, the perfume of the flowers, the sweetness of a spring morning, the illustration of the stars, the brilliancy of a sunset and the many voices of little children?

All these things animated the soul of the unfortunate man who died in an asylum.

Here is his will:

My right to live being but a life estate is not at my disposal, but, these things being excepted, all else in the world I now proceed to devise and bequeath.

I give to good fathers and mothers in trust for their children all good little words of praise and encouragement, all quaint pet names and endearments, and I charge the said parents to use them generously as the needs of the children require.

I leave the children for the term of their childhood the flowers, fields, blossoms and woods, with the right to play among them freely, warning them at the same time against thistles and thorns. I devise to the children the banks, the brooks, and the golden sands beneath the waters thereof, and the white clouds that float high over the giant trees, and I leave to the children long, long days to be merry in, and the night and the moon and the train of the Milky Way to wonder at.

I devise to the boys jointly all the useful fields, all the pleasant waters, where one may swim, all the streams where one may fish, or where, when grim winter comes, one may skate, to have and to hold the same for the period of their boyhood. The meadows, with the clover blossoms, and butterflies thereof, the woods and their appurtenances, squirrels, birds, echoes and strange noises, all the distant places which may be visited, together with the adventures there found. I give to the said boys each his own place by the fireside at night, with all the pictures that may be seen in the burning wood, to enjoy without let or hindrance and without any encumbrances or care.

To the lovers I devise their imaginary world with whatever they may need, as stars, sky, red roses by the wall, the bloom of the hawthorn, the sweet strains of music, and aught else they may desire.

To the young man all boisterous and inspiring sports and rivalry, and I give them disdain of weakness and contempt confidence in their own strength. I give them power to make lasting friendships, possessing companions, and to them exclusively I give all merry songs and brave choruses.

And to those who are no longer children or youths or lovers, I leave memory, and bequeath them the volumes of the poems of Burns, Shakespeare, and other poets, if there be others, to live over their old days again without tithe.

To the loved ones with snowy crowns I bequeath business, old age, the love and gratitude of their children until they shall fall asleep.—Ocala Banner.

TONE UP PUBLIC SENTIMENT.

The very first law enacted by the late Legislature to go before the courts was found to be defective, and its operation stayed for sixty days on that account. It was the act in regard to applicants for admission to the bar being examined by the supreme court. The words that usually are attached to acts, "to take effect upon approval by the Governor," were omitted.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

Did it occur to The Metropolis that "the words that usually are attached to acts" might have been purposely omitted by the introducer of the bill. The bill was introduced by Hon. Syd L. Carter of Gainesville, a lawyer of State-wide reputation, and it seems only fair to assume that he was pretty well up to what he was doing. Under the provisions of the constitution legislative enactments become effective sixty days after the final adjournment of the Legislature at which they were passed "unless otherwise specially provided in such law." We beg to suggest to our metropolitan contemporary that in all probability Judge Carter, in the course of his long and active practice at the bar, had learned of this constitutional provision and preferred to have his bill become operative under it. It is barely possible that the judge thought it best to give the supreme court justices, who are the examiners under the new law, a little time to prepare a uniform method of examination, and it may be that he thought it but an act of fairness to the students of the law department of Stetson University who are to graduate during this month to allow them to be admitted to practice under the conditions that obtained at the time of their entry at the university.

So it may be seen that the legislator is very often moved by considerations of fairness and good policy that are likely to be lost on the outsider unless the outsider be a much closer student of legislative procedure and proceedings than our contemporary shows himself to be in the poorly founded paragraph that heads this article.

While we are on the subject it may not be amiss to suggest to those of our contemporaries who are inclined to overindulge in nagging and petty criticism that they are not making for improved conditions in the legislative department of our State. The legislator, more perhaps than any other public servant, is the creature and exemplifier of his environment. He may, at times, rise above or fall below the standard set by public sentiment in his bailiwick, but in the main he hews close to the line. It is clear, therefore, that the way to have broad-gauged legislators is to build up a broad-gauged public sentiment. This cannot be done by nagging and nipping and petty fault-finding or by sweeping denunciation. Such is the method of the rabble, and, so far as we know, history does not record a single instance where the rabble has brought about a healthy change in public sentiment.

If the Legislature that adjourned on May 31st had faults let them be pointed out by the press in a manner that will carry conviction to the public mind. The legislator will be quick enough to respond to changed public sentiment.

The above is from The Starke Telegraph, whose editor presided over the last House of Representatives. There is not the least doubt that Judge Carter knew what he was doing when he drew the bill referred to. He is the peer of any lawyer in Florida, and was the recognized leader on the floor of the House. It is not always considered for the best interests of all concerned to have new laws take effect "upon their passage and approval," and Judge Carter recognized this in the above instance.

The county commissioners and members of the school board now receive four dollars per day salary and mileage. They will hereafter be nominated by their respective districts, instead of the county at large, the law having been changed in this respect.

According to Miss Jefferson Bell, the talented Tallahassee correspondent of The Pensacola Journal, Representative Willis of Levy "earned a reputation as the buffoon of the House." We hope this will prove to be a slander on Levy.—Bronson Times-Democrat.

There is more or less levity about Willis. He can't help that. It is a part of him. But just the same he was a useful member of the House of Representatives. Very few men on the floor kept more thoroughly informed as to the merits of the bills that were up for consideration.—Starke Telegraph.

What The Telegraph says of Representative Willis, that "he was a useful member," etc., is also true of Senator John R. Willis of Levy. He was without doubt one of the most industrious and best posted of the thirty-two members of the last Senate.

The New York Commercial says: "Most American steel manufacturers have plans under way or perfected for extensions of plants this year. New furnaces are being built and preparations are going ahead for a big year's business. Reports given out in this industry place production still at 'high-water mark.' We have reached a season when no prophet can fortell what the crops will be, and thereon hinge many things. If they are only partially damaged, an increase in prices will more than offset the loss. Of cotton, tobacco and other crops little can be said as yet. Copper is 'quiet,' but the mines are all producing with the same regularity. Merchandising has received a not fatal blow in the unreasonable weather; that, too, can be recovered from in time. Building is going on in all the cities industriously. That calls for steel and copper and, while there may be a fluctuating demand in these two great commodities, it is plain that they are being manufactured and consumed at a great rate. The anticipation of a Presidential election has its shadows, but as we think, mostly so it is; and, if we think continued prosperity, there is absolutely no reason why we should not have it. There is no more sense in shutting down on account of a Presidential election than there was in the old belief that no vice-president could be elected to the Presidential office. By all means, let us have sense."

Our Southern right, title and interest in Mr. Roosevelt is now no longer an open question. In his speech on Georgia Day at the Jamestown Exposition, Monday, he fearlessly stated that he was half Southern and half Northern by virtue of his Georgia mother. As to which half is the best we are not prepared to say.—Live Oak Democrat.

The farmers of Macclenny will engage extensively in strawberry culture the coming season. This was formerly one of the most profitable industries in the vicinity of Gainesville, but for some reason it has been abandoned.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contains Mercury

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smelling and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. SERMONETTES

Written for THE SUN by J. Marvin Nichols

Evil is always temporary.

Nothing ever needs a lie.

Every human heart is human.

Time is the best avenger—if we wait.

Hold your verdict until the evidence is all in.

Like a lode-stone, happiness draws everything toward you.

A twisted truth and a straight lie are on the same plane.

Life is a running stream. When stagnant you have ceased to live.

There is no greater luxury than the possesson of a friend that understands you.

The men that make the history for other men to record are rarely ever book-worms.

Because a man happens to be extravagant with his love is no sign he will ever come to want.

Duty looks on life as a debt; love is always dreaming about the collection of that debt.

Some fellows, when referring to their ancestry, are quite correct in making mention of their great descent.

Duty is one of the most overworked words in all the language. Duty is the cold and bare anatomy of righteousness.

In the evening of life the want of things material is easily righted, but the poverty of mind is beyond all repair.

You make a mistake if you think that poverty means the lack of gold. Its worst form is a poverty of thought and ambition.

Observation teaches me that the vigorous and independent mind from the farm can be easily lost in academic pursuits.

In these closing school days thousands might do well to remember that a diploma is not an insurance policy against failure.

In all secrets there is a kind of guilt, however beautiful and joyous they may be. Secrecy means evasion—and that is the moral problem.

No worthy enterprise is ever too great a venture—no commendable effort is ever too daring. Risk anything—others have landed. Why not you?

Be patient with everyone, but above all, yourself. I mean, do not be disturbed because of your imperfections, and always rise bravely from a fall—so said Francis de Sales.

Forget your past losses, your errors, and mistakes; or think of them only as sent to enrich your inner life, to strengthen you and make you more thoroughly human and helpful and sympathetic.

A dog hitched to a lawn mower stopped to bark at a passer-by. "Don't mind the dog," said the boy. "He is just barking for an excuse to rest. It is a heap easier to bark than it is to pull this machine." Say: have you got the trick to see the point?

The higher education of man comes from within. Emerson said: "What we do not call education is more precious than what we call so." Great souls get knowledge and wisdom by direct preception—by listening to the whisperings in the silent places—by keeping the ear in tune with the sighing winds and the throbbing seas.

One declares that the world is upheld by the veracity of good men; they make the earth wholesome. We call our children and our lands by their names. Their names are wrought into the words of the language, their works and effigies are in our houses, and every circumstance of the day recalls some anecdote of them.

A man's mind may be likened to a garden, which may be intelligently cultivated or allowed to run wild; but whether cultivated or neglected, it must, and will bring forth a harvest. If no useful seeds are put into it, then an abundance of useless weed-seeds will fall in the mind and continue to produce their kind. This is a mental law no human can ignore.

I know some whose yearning spirits, like the tendrils of a vine, are feeling out if perchance they may find something to which they might cling. I know of no greater tragedy than the heart whose spirit droops and dies for the want of such support. I know of no greater criminal than the one who deliberately refuses such support, knowing that without it death must come.

The missions on the Bowery and such places have revealed a wonderous fact. The majority of men who drift into them were well educated. Many of them are graduates of colleges and technical schools—many were members of the learned professions. These derelicts cast upon the sea of life from educational families are proportionately more numerous than the drift from the lower ranks. Here is room for sober and sincere thought.

Do you know what it means to be a friend, to have a friend, to be absolutely sure that whatever you do, whatever you are, wherever you are, there is one living soul who believes in you, who will trust you, help you, and never, never fail you? One who will always cheer and encourage in sunshine as well as in storm, for life is mostly sunny and the heart needs a friend all the time—a constant source of inspiration, a heart forever alert and on the defensive for those it chooses to love.

If the truth were known, many unfortunates whom the world condemns are entitled to the protection of the court, while we proceed to drag others into the limelight who claim protection because of wealth and reputed refinement. We are too quick to throw about their shoulders a mantle of secrecy because they happen to belong to that howling farce—a segment of the modern social system, society. I have never seen the day that I did not have an infinite respect for little Evelyn Nesbit when alongside Thaw and White. Protection for her. Yes all the world can give. For is she not the chattel that a mother exchanged for a stipulated pile of gold in the coffers of White?

Nan Patterson, charged with the awful crime of murder, disowned by her friends and disgraced before the world, stood in New York's criminal court, helpless and alone—yet not alone, for her faithful father was by her side. And Nan Patterson, in those dark days, found in him the same father that rocked her cradle in her babyhood. Though a thousand whisperings have been flung to the winds yet men worship the power that holds Evelyn Thaw near the Toombs. It was this same incarnate passion that brought Senator Burton out of Leavenworth with a faded rose clinging to the lapel of his coat. It was the rose his wife pinned there the day he became a Federal prisoner. The truest affection can never be swayed. It clings the closer when the storms rage and the tempests howl. Love, if never blind, at least seems to forget.

Will Keep Same Wage Scale.

Birmingham, Ala., June 15.—The state convention of the United Mine Workers of America adopted a wage scale in executive session Thursday, and adjourned until next Monday, when a joint conference with those operators who deal with union labor will be held. While the wage scale has not been made public, it is understood that it is substantially the same scale as has been in effect for the past three years.

Christmas Soon To Be Tried.

Cottonwood, Ala., June 15.—The trial of William Christmas, for the murder of his father, mother and little brother, a year ago, has been set for next week at Marianna, Fla. The accused has been out on bond. There are some who believed that the deed was done by a negro and that Christmas had nothing to do with it. Christmas has been at the old place where the murder occurred since he was arrested.

SCORED SYSTEM OF EDUCATION

Made Sensation When He Said There Was No Moral Training in Schools.

Savannah, Ga., June 15.—Bishop B. J. Kelley in his address at the Benedictine college commencement, scores the system of education in vogue in this country.

The remarks of the bishop created something of a sensation. He said that no moral training is given in the public schools or the universities, as a rule, and that though the highest interest of man is in religion, yet there is little religious instruction given. He declared that an education that does not prepare for the life after death is an absolute waste of time and energy. He said that the public system of education was likely to produce neither Christians nor gentlemen. He made reference to the fact that Robert E. Lee had, after the war, declared his intention of training the youth of the land to be Christian gentlemen.

Stomach Free of Poison.

Raleigh, N. C., June 15.—Though Coroner Separk, who is also the committing magistrate, had said positively he would not open until Monday the report of the analysis of the stomach of Engineer Strange, whom Dr. Rowland and his wife are accused of poisoning, he changed his mind upon the solicitation of the solicitor and opened the report late Thursday. The report says no trace of any poison was found. The hearing takes place Monday morning. It is said warrants making fresh charges against Dr. Rowland are to be served.

Business Rivals Have Fight.

Covington, Tenn., June 15.—In a duel between Waddy Tatum and John Glimp, 10 miles north of this place Wednesday evening, Tatum was fatally wounded. The trouble arose over a rivalry in business. Tatum was on his way to supper when he met Glimp in a wagon, and it is stated Tatum opened fire on Glimp with a revolver. The latter picked up a shotgun from the bottom of the wagon and returned the fire. The first shot missed, but the second took effect in Tatum's abdomen, and he fell mortally wounded.

Groom 60; Bride 25.

Gainesville, Ga., June 15.—A marriage of unusual interest was solemnized at the Arlington hotel Wednesday when Miss Alma Light and Mr. W. S. Moon, of Flowery Branch, were wedded. The bride and groom came to Gainesville, and after a license had been secured, Rev. B. F. Fraser was sent for and performed the ceremony. The groom is about 60 years of age, while the bride is not over 25. They have the best wishes of hosts of friends.

Railroads Must Obey Law.

St. Louis, June 15.—Attorney General Hadley Friday filed an application here, simultaneously with similar action in Kansas City, and secured injunctions against eighteen of the principal Missouri railroads, compelling them to obey the two-cent rate law and maximum freight rate law now in effect.

WORMS

"I had for years suffered from what medical men called Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach. In August I purchased a box of Cascarets and was surprised to find that I "had 'em"—yes—a wiggling, squirming mass left me. Judge our Doctor's surprise when I showed him thirty feet, and in another day the remainder (about the same length) of a tapeworm that had been sapping my vitality for years. I have enjoyed the best of health ever since. I trust this testimonial will appeal to other sufferers."

MR. VAUGHN WELL PLEASED WITH STATE

His Mind Has Been Disabused Regarding Florida and People.

PAYS STATE A COMPLIMENT

Prominent Seed Man of Chicago Looked Upon Florida as Good for Nothing But Raising Vegetables and Malaria, But Was Happily Disappointed.

L. H. Vaughn, a member of the Vaughn Seed Store, Chicago, who has been in this city for the past ten days in the interest of the firm, which was the defendant in a case of assumpsit in which J. D. Stringfellow was the plaintiff, is very much impressed with this section of the country.

This is Mr. Vaughn's first visit to the South. Born and reared in Chicago he never fully comprehended the glorious advantages of the South, especially Florida, and had been taught to believe that there was nothing here but a rough country, capable only of producing vegetables and malaria.

"I have always labored under the impression that Florida was merely nothing," he admitted in the lobby of the Brown House Friday. "I thought, from what I had been told, that all the State was good for was to raise produce to ship to us fellows up North, although I must admit that I have compared Florida products with the products of other States and sections and often wondered why it was that Florida was good for nothing but the production of vegetables and fruits.

"I have changed my ideas of Florida, however, since coming here, and I want to say that I am 'dead stuck' on the country and your people, who are among the cleverest I have ever met. They have treated me so hospitably that I am almost ashamed to own up that I ever entertained an idea that they were anything but the best, cleverest people on earth, and you may feel sure that in future I will be found blowing a horn for Florida and its people."

Mr. Vaughn paid special tribute to Gainesville. "It is one of the most model, up-to-date little cities I have ever seen and I have traveled some," he said. "I must admit that I was surprised upon my arrival here to find, instead of a lot of old wooden structures, a town built up of such handsome business houses and residences, and with such magnificent walks and streets, and I am going to be honest enough to say that I am so much in love with Gainesville and this section that I am almost tempted to leave my business in Chicago with somebody else and come and live and die among you good people."

Mr. Vaughn states that he will not return to Chicago at present, but will visit several of the growers in this section who have been his customers for many years.

MR. BISHOP WAS HERE.

Former Citizen of Alachua County Pleased With Our Advancement

Among the prominent visitors to this city Friday was R. J. Bishop of DeLand, who made The Sun an appreciated call. He accompanied his daughter, Miss Mattie, who was en route to Romeo to visit her brother, as far as Gainesville.

Mr. Bishop is well known and popular in this county, having resided in Wade for a number of years. He is now engaged in the navel stores business at Eldridge, Volusia county, with great success.

Mr. Bishop expressed himself as being surprised at the rapid development of Gainesville since his departure from this county. He admired especially the miles of elegant sidewalks and streets, the handsome buildings, etc., and congratulated the city and her energetic citizens.

Mr. Bishop left on the afternoon train for his home, after having renewed old acquaintance with a number of his friends here.

A Happy Mother

Will see that her baby is properly cared for—to do this a good purgative is necessary. Many babies suffer from worms and their mothers don't know it—if your baby is feverish and doesn't sleep at night, it is troubled with worms. White's Cream Vermifuge will clean out these worms in a mild, pleasant way. Once tried always used. Give it a trial. Price 25 cents. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Reuben Anglin, one of the faithful employes of Hon. W. H. Robertson near Newnan's Lake, was in the city yesterday, calling at The Sun office and renewing his subscription. Reuben states that he has been constantly in the employ of Mr. Robertson for the past twenty-two years, and speaks very highly in praise of his employer.

Dr. W. M. Johnson has returned from Jacksonville and Atlantic Beach, where he has been in attendance at the meeting of the Florida State Pharmaceutical Association. Dr. Johnson, who has been for the past year the treasurer of the association, was again elected, which was quite a compliment. Dr. Johnson is one of the most popular druggists in the State.

Harry Cannon of Rocky Point, who spent two or three days with his friends here, has gone North for the summer. He will visit the Jamestown Exposition, relatives in Delaware, and other points, and may proceed to California before he returns. Harry was desperately ill with typhoid fever for a few weeks, and will take this trip in an endeavor to regain his health.

COLSON-GAY FARM.

This Farm, Located at Arredondo, is Making Large Shipments.

One of the most successful farms in this section this year will be the Colson & Gay farm, at Arredondo, which it seems has been particularly favored by nature.

The Sun a few days ago stated that from ninety acres of cantaloupes the yield promised to be the most prolific of any similar tract in the county, and that the manager has refused a cash offer of $4,000 for the crop on the vines. At the time some of the wise predicted that the refusal of this offer was a serious mistake, but it is about to develop now that the manager has a level head in refusing.

This farm began its first solid carload shipments Monday, and during the week closing today an average of one solid carload a day will have been consigned to the markets of the North. The fruit is exceptionally fine, and is bringing good prices, and altogether it looks now as the owners of this farm will make a fine thing financially from their efforts.

There Are Few

People who know how to take care of themselves—the majority do not. The liver is a most important organ in the body. V. C. Simpkins, Alba, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine for Chills and Fever and find it the best medicine I ever used. I would not be without it. It is as good for children as it is for grown-up people, and I recommend it. It is fine for La Grippe." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

HUMORS IN THE BLOOD

Coming of Warm Weather Forces Them Out, Causing Itching, Burning Skin Eruptions.

The blood and skin are so closely connected that whatever affects the one has a corresponding effect on the other. When the blood is pure and healthy the skin will be soft, smooth, and free from all eruptions; but when the blood becomes infected with some unhealthy humor the effect is shown by rashes, eruptions, boils and pimples, or other disfiguring and annoying skin disease.

The skin is provided with countless pores and glands which act as a drainage system to rid the body of impurities through the perspiration that is constantly passing through these little tubes. There are other glands that pour out on the skin an oily substance to keep it soft and pliable, otherwise it would become hard and dry from constant exposure to wind and sun. When the blood becomes filled with humors and acids these are thrown off through the pores and glands, burning and irritating the skin and drying up the natural oils so that we have not only Acne, Eczema, Salt Rheum, etc., but such dry scaly skin eruptions as Tetter, Psoriasis and kindred troubles.

These humors find their way into the blood through a disordered or deranged condition of the system. There is a certain amount of waste or refuse matter collected in the body every day. This is useless in nourishing or keeping the system in health, and nature intends that it shall find an outlet through the channels of bodily waste. As long as these members perform their duties properly the blood remains pure and free from infection; but when from any cause they become dull and sluggish, this refuse matter is left to sour and be taken into the blood in the form of humors and poisons. The skin is a perfect index to the blood; when we see one afflicted with a skin disease, or pimples, rashes, eruptions, blotches, etc., constantly appearing, we know that down deep in the blood a humor has taken root, and instead of supplying nourishment and strength to the fine, delicate tissues of the skin, it is pouring out its acid and unhealthy accumulations.

S. S. S. DROVE THE HUMOR OUT.

Gentlemen: Some two years ago I suffered a great deal, caused on account of a humor in the blood; small rash or pimples broke out over my body and kept getting worse day by day for over a year. Seeing S. S. S. advertised in the paper and having also heard it had cured several people in this city, concluded to try it. After using the medicine I was entirely cured, and am very glad to recommend it. 1020 Clay St., Paducah, Ky. EDW. W. LONG.

FOUND A CURE FOR POISON OAK.

Gentlemen: After having tried for six years to find a cure for Poison Oak, from which I was a great sufferer, I was told by a friend to try S. S. S. It entirely cured me and gave me excellent health. There is no remedy for a bad condition of the blood like S. S. S., and you have in S. S. S. a positive cure for Poison Oak.
Danville, Ky. J. E. WISEMAN.

The skin is not only affected by the humors generated within the system, but poisons from without, such as Poison Oak and Ivy, Nettle Rash, etc., as well as poisons from metals, acids, etc., enter through the open pores and glands, and so thoroughly do they take root in the blood that they are ever present, or return from year to year to annoy the sufferer.

The treatment of skin diseases with salves, washes, lotions, etc., is along the wrong line. True such treatment relieves some of the itching and discomfort, and aids in keeping the skin clean, but it does not reach the real cause of the trouble, and at best such things are only palliative and soothing.

S.S.S.
PURELY VEGETABLE

A thorough cleansing of the blood is the only cure for humors in the blood. S. S. S., a gentle acting, safe blood purifier, made entirely of vegetable ingredients from nature's forests and fields, is the proper treatment. S. S. S. goes down into the circulation and neutralizes the acids and humors, thoroughly cleansing and purifying the blood, and curing skin diseases and affections of every kind. It supplies to the blood the fresh, nutritive qualities necessary to sustain the skin and all other parts of the body, and rids the blood of any and all poisons. S. S. S. cures Eczema, Tetter, Acne, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Poison Oak and Ivy, Nettle Rash and all troubles of the skin. Special book on skin diseases and any medical advice desired furnished by our physicians without charge to all who write.

"FLAG DAY" IN NEW YORK.

113th Anniversary of Adoption of "Old Glory" as National Emblem.

New York, June 15.—Friday was "flag day," the 113th anniversary of the adoption of the stars and stripes as the national emblem.

It was observed by the customary ceremonies here.

At a given hour in the morning the pupils in the various schools arose and saluted the flag as it was brought forward and pledged allegiance to it and the republic for which it stands. On all state and municipal buildings "Old Glory" was spread to the breezes by order of the governor and mayor, and patriotic societies held appropriate exercises.

Every Man His Own Doctor.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man must, from necessity, be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Success often depends upon prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand. Chamberlain's remedies have been in the market for many years and enjoy a good reputation.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm (an antiseptic liniment) for cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, swellings, lame back and rheumatic pains.
